

EurOMA 2016 Full Paper Submission Guidelines

If your abstract was accepted to the conference, we now invite you to submit your full paper. Please note that your full paper will be included only if :

- The full paper has been submitted on or before April 18, 2016.
- At least one author of the paper has registered to attend the conference on or before April 18, 2016.

Full Paper Submission Guidelines

Before uploading your full paper, please read carefully the following guidelines:

- Please submit your full paper by April 18, 2016. Papers received after this date will not be included in the programme and Book of Abstracts.
- The title of the full paper has to be identical with the one of your abstract.
- The overall length of the paper, including abstract, all illustrations, tables, and references, is limited to 10 pages. Papers exceeding the limit will be rejected.
- Your abstract should not exceed 100 words. An identical abstract should be typed separately in the abstract field of the paper submission web page. This abstract will appear in the Book of Abstracts.
- Please submit your paper as a PDF document (only) using the online EurOMA 2016 full paper submission link found at www.euroma2016.org/call-for-papers/
- The full paper must adhere to the formatting in the Full Paper Template.
- The full paper which you submit is the final paper. There is no further review. If your paper does not meet the requirements, it may be rejected.

Your full paper will be accepted on the understanding that the submitted manuscript is an original work and has not been copyrighted, published, or accepted for presentation at any other conference.

An extended version of the best papers will be considered for potential publication in special issues of international journals.

Papers should be organized in the following sequence:

- Title of the paper, name(s) of the author(s), affiliation(s)
- Abstract (max 100 words)
- Keywords
- Main subject text
- Acknowledgments (when applicable)
- References

Please make sure that you follow the guidelines for layout, formatting and referencing as set out in the Full Paper Template available as a separate document on the EurOMA 2016 website www.euroma2016.org/call-for-papers/

We look forward to welcome you to Trondheim!
